GLOOM IN THE DUAL EMPIRE

One Hundred and Twenty Thousand Killed and Missing.

MANY CANNON LOST.

Russians Outnumbered Troops of Francis Joseph and Crushed Them by Ponderous Impact.

Vienna, via Rome, Sept. 10—All Austria was plunged into gloom today when official admission was made here that the recent operations against the Russians have cost the dual empire one-fourth of her first line of effective fighting men. Simultaneously it became known, for the first time, that the operations in Galicia and Russian Poland have been under the personal direction of the Archduke Francis Frederick.

The announcement at the war office stated that since the operations against Russia began the total losses in killed, wounded and missing of the Austrian first line army totals the enormous number of 120,000. In addition, by reason of the attack of an overwhelming number of Russians, who have outnumbered the Austrians at all times, large quantities of military stores, ammunition and cannons have been lost.

The Archduke Francis Frederick of Austria is a cousin of Emperor Francis Joseph, and succeeded the late Archduke Francis Ferdinand, whose assassination is in reality responsible for the war, as inspector general of the Austrian-Hungarian armies. He is an intimate friend of Kaiser Wilhelm, who considered him the ablest officer of the Austro-Hungarian forces. The archduke is the brother of the queen mother of Spain.

WANT A SETTLEMENT.

Treasurer of a Norfolk Church Looking for Missing Woman.

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 10.—Officers of the church and members of the building committee of Park Place Methodist Church, at Thirty-first St., and Omohundro avenue are considering means for obtaining a settlement with Emmet W. Taylor, treasurer of the church and custodian of the building fund, who left Norfolk some ten days ago, after sending his family away, and who has not been seen in this city since.

The amount of the indebtedness to the church is said to be in the neighborhood of $7,000.

Before leaving the city, Mr. Taylor disposed of his home at 248 West Thirty-first street. Mr. Taylor was not under bond and it is the opinion of the church officials that if settlement is arirved at it will be through friends.

Mr. Taylor had been living in Norfolk for about three years, coming here from Richmond. His former home was in Appomattox.

For two years Mr. Taylor has been treasurer of the church.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Peter Kontspoulas, a 17-year-old Turk, lost his life in a 20-minute battle with a shark in Lake Pontchartrain, Louisiana, recently, while a crowd that had been watching his fancy swimming feats lined the shore, helpless. The shark darted off when spectators finally reached the place in a boat, but the young man died before reaching shore.

President Edwin Anderson Alderman, of the University of Virginia, a refugee from St. Mortiz, is in the same predicament as President Hibben, of Princeton, who was wondering if he would be able to get back home before the university opened. President Alderman has had no such good luck as Prof. Hibben, who finally managed to get passage on the Olympic. The best Dr. Alderman can do is to take the Baltic, sailing October 9, thus missing the fall opening of the University of Virginia.

Dr. Matthew S. Borden, J. Harvey Wood, the latter's wife and Leo Gulfreund, a chauffeur, all of New York, were killed yesterday at Palenro, near Ocean City, N. J., when the automobile in which they were going to a convention crashed into the engine of a freight train. The automobile was traveling at forty miles an hour, it is said.

While policemen, who had been summoned by the screams of his wife, were endeavoring to effect an entrance to his house, Louise E. Galloway, a Baltimore druggist, shot his wfie five times in an attempt to kill her and then fired two shots into his own heart, dying instantly. The motive for the crime is unknown. The couple had been married thirteen years.

THE PRESIDENT'S APPEAL.

Would Invoke Ruler of Universe to Bring About Peace.

President Wilson's proclamation, calling upon the people of the country to meet in their respective churches and pray for peace is as follows:

"Whereas, great nations of the world have taken up armes against one another and war now draws millions of men into battle whom the counsel of statesmen have not been able to save from a terrible sacrifice; and

"Whereas, in this as in all things it is our duty and privilege to seek counsel and succor of Almighty God, humbling ourselves before Him, confessing our weakness and our lack of any wisdom equal to these things; and

"Whereas, it is the especial wish and longing of the people of the United States, in prayer and counsel and all friendliness, to serve the cause of peace;

"Therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States of America, do designate Sunday, the fourth day of October next, a day of prayer and supplication, and do request all God-fearing persons to repair on that day to their places of worship, there to unite their petitions to Almighty God that, overruling the counsel of men, setting straight the things they cannot govern or alter, taking pity on the nations now in the throes of conflict, in His mercy and goodness showing the way where men can see none. He vouchsafe His children, healing peace again and restore once more that concord among men and nations, without which there can be neither happiness nor true friendship nor any wholesome fruit of toil or thought in the world; praying also to this end that He forgive us our sins, our ignorance of His holy will, our wilfulness and many errors, and lead us in the paths of obedience to places of vision and to thoughts and counsel that purge and make wise."

Killed in Auto Wreck.

Bristol, Va.-Tenn., Sept. 10.—James H. Wood, Jr., a son of Capt. James P. Wood, and his wife, Mrs. Madjeska Clark Wood, were killed in an automobile wreck in New York yesterday. The father of the young man, who is a lawyer in New York City, wired the news to Bristol relatives. Mr. Wood was 35 years old. He formerly lived here and graduated from the Virginia Military Institute.

REINFORCEMENTS FOR THE GERMANS

Invaders Making Desperate Effort to Regain Lost Ground.

FIGHTING IS SEVERE.

Kaiser's Troops Said to be Virtually Exhausted During Their Experience of Past Two Weeks.

London, Sept. 10, 3 p. m.—The left end of the curved German battle line, which September 7 extended in the segment of a wide circle from Maux to Vitry-le-Francois, about 100 miles to the east of Paris, has been hit by the English and forced to double back for a distance of approximately twenty-five miles. This outcome of the fighting has aroused great satisfaction in Paris and London. It is argued that it probably has resulted in an equal degree of anxiety for the German general staff concerning its line of communications.

Paris, Sept 10—German re-enforcements have arrived at the German center and right, and it was reported today that the Kaiser's forces are making a desperate effort to recover their lost ground. The main attack, as on each day of the battle up to the present, has been directed against the center.

Over the stretch of fifty miles between Vitry-le-Francois and Montmirail, the fighting is unusually severe, but General Gallieni insists that the French lines are holding. The British-French left has been heavily re-inforced by the troops withdrawn from the defenses of Paris, who are not needed here at the present time.

All the reports received here are of the most roseate character. The Germans are declared to be nearly exhausted with their efforts of the last fortnight. Even their fresh troops now arriving from the rear are declared to fail to display the spirit of the earlier conflicts. They are also admittedly having trouble bringing up supplies, especially rifle and artillery ammunition.

The reports persist here that an extremely strong expedition has been pushed forward from Ostend and that the German lines of communication are seriously threatened. It is stated that the retreat of the German right beyond the Ourcq and the Marne rivers was entirely due to this surprise, although at what point the flanking attack was delivered is not known here.

Bordeaux, Sept. 10—That the French are reoccupying all of upper Alsace was admitted at the war office today. It was stated that as the result of the withdrawal of the German forces from the territory to the eastward of Belfort, the French troops from Bes noon have crossed the frontier near Belfort and are now moving to re-occupy the territory from which they were driven a week ago.

The Germans are reported to be retiring beyond Mulehausen, and are acting entirely on the defensive. Because of this it is believed there are only a very few Germans left in upper Alsace, and that it will be possible for the French to reoccupy all of the territory and ther to co-operate with the forces which are fighting all along the Lorraine frontier.

London, Sept 10—News from the battle front in France today states emphatically that the success of the allies is continued. It is stated that the latest attempt of the Germans to force the French center has failed, and that the British-French forces are driving the German right far before it, with the heaviest of losses.

General Smith-Dorrien is the hero of the occasion. His praises are on every British official's tongu. That the present offensive of the allies is possible is admittedly due to his efforts. With his small corps for two days he withstood an overwhelming force of Germans, making possible the saving of the entire left wing of the allied army

PROGRESS OF THE WAR.

The British and French allied forces continued successful on the fourth day of the great battle in France. On the French left the Germans, though reinforced, have lost more ground. The British army has crossed the Marne River and the Germans have fallen back 25 miles. The fighting is most furious in the center.

The Germans have lost two more major generals, Von Gotha and Nieland. Premier Von Weizsacker of Wurtemburg, and Finance Minister Von Breung, of Bavaria, have lost sons. Prince Frederick William of Hess was wounded in the breast.

The French fortress of Maubeuge has fallen, according to an official announcement made in Berlin. It is stated that the Germans took 40,000 prisoners and 400 guns. A dispatch from Paris says: The defense of Maubeuge, despite rumors of its fall, continues heroically against heavy German siege guns.

A feature of Monday's action was another heroic charge by the Algerian riflemen. At a critical moment it became necessary to carry a certain position and, after the artillery had prepared the way, 2,000 Algerians, with fixed bayonets, charged the position at double-quick without flinching under the storm of shot and shells.

They never stopped until they reached the trenches, where they wrought fearful carnage. Many pieces of artillery and machine guns were captured. After the Algerians came the infantry and artillery, and the wedge driven into the line forced the Germans to retreat. They were pursued by the same Algerians, who inflicted terrible losses.

FIGHT IN MIDAIR.

Russian Aviator Rams Austrian Airship—Sacrifices His Life.

London, Sept 10—Captain Nesteroff, one of the most daring Russian aviators and the first of his countrymen to loop-the-loop has sacrificed his life in a successful attempt to destroy an Austrian aeroplane, says a Petrograd despatch to the Reuter Telegraph Company.

According to a report from the front Captain Nesteroff was returning from an aerial reconnoissance when he saw an Austrian aeroplane hovering over the Russian forces, presumably with the intention of dropping bombs.

The Russian aviator immediately changed the direction of his machine and headed straight for that of the Austrian at full speed. Although he must have known well that victory by such tactics could be gained only at the cost of his own life, he dashed into the Austrian aeroplane. The force of the impact caused the collapse of both machines, which plunged to the earth, the two aviators meeting instant death.

CZAR IS DETERMINED.

Nicholas Says he Will Enter Berlin if He Loses Last Moujik.

London, Sept. 10.—The Evening News has published a dispatch from its Rome correspondent, who says that Emperor Nicholas is reported in Rome to have made the following declaration:

"I am resolved to go to Berlin itself, even if it causes me to lose my last moujik."

The Japanese Ambasasdor at Petrograd, the correspondent of the News continues, having expressed to the emperor a wish to see the soldiers of Japan fighting side by side with those of Russia, the emperor replied:

"I shall do my best to realize your wishes."

AUSTRIANS RETURN TO THE CONFLICT

Reinforced by German Troops They are Fighting Again.

12,000 ARE CAPTURED.

Russians Still Bombard Austrian Positions at Przemyal—No Attempts to Storm the Place.

Petrograd, Sept 10—Fighting with the Austrian armies of Generals Von Auffenberg and Dankl has been resumed.

Following their decisive defeat at Rawa Ruska, they have been heavily re-enforced by German troops and they are now fighting along a line west of Rawa Ruska extending southwest through Sadowa to a point near the Dneister river.

The brunt of the fighting is reported here to have been borne by the Fourteenth Austrian Army Corps, which was brought from Alsace to re-enforce the main Austrian army. The official reports received from General Ronzsky say that this corps lost heavily in yesterday's fighting and that one of its battle standards, two cannon and 500 prisoners were taken.

According to the chiefs at the war office the Austrians have lost fully one-quarter of their effective strength in the fighting which resulted in their being driven from Russian Poland.

The plan to round them up and capture or annhilate them failed, through the arrival of strong German re-enforcements from the western theatre of fighting, supported by a large number of rapid-firers and field artillery.

It is stated, however, that the Austrians are constantly retreating and that additional Russian re-enforcements are being sent to General Ronzsky to enable him to continue offensive.

The army of General Brussaloff, which is moving westward from Lemberg, is co-operating with that of General Rouzsky, according to the latest information obtainable from the war office.

A later dispatch from General Rouzsky declares he has captured 12,000 Austrians, with thirty-one guns and 150 officers, including the general commanding the Austrain fifteenth division in the fighting at Rawa-Ruska. The troops captured were a part of the Sixth Army Corps.

The Russian investment of Przemyal continues. The Russians are shelling the fortified Austrian positions from the eastward, but up to the present no attempt has been made to take the Austrian position by storm and the bombardment will continue until re-enforcements, now en route, reach the scene.

SHOT BY A NEGRO.

Would-Be Murderer is Later Captured.

Richmond, Sept. 10.—W. K. Buckley, manager of Strawberry Hill Farm, about three miles from Richmond, who was shot yesterday by Len Davis, a negro, employed on the farm as a laborer, is still in a serious condition at the Memorial Hospital, to which institution he was rushed following the shooting. Davis made his escape, but was captured at Hanover Courthouse by the stationmaster late yesterday afternoon, who had been given a description of the negro fugitive. The captured man was later identified as the man who did the shooting by Mr. Charles U. Williams, who drove out to Hanover Courthouse for this purpose, accompanied by two Henrico county officers.

Davis does not deny that he did the shooting. He is said to have offered as an excuse that he shot in self-defense, although this is denied by Mr. Buckley.

The shooting occurred in Henrico county, and the negro was brought here to stand trial, for attempt to murder, by Henrico county officers at a late hour last night.

Pope's Peace Proposal.

Rome, Sept. 10.—As a prelude to a definite program which the Vatican is about to begin in the interests of peace betwee the allies and Austria and Germany, Pope Benedict today dispatched notes to the ambassadors of all warning nations to ascertain the sentiments of their respective governments relative to a plan for a papal appeal for peace.

It is confidently believed here that Austria's reply will be favorable to Pope Benedict's program.

WAR IN EASTERN PRUSSIA.

Thousands Killed And Austrians Reported as Disheartened.

The correspondent of the London Times at Petrograd sends the following:

"The extent of the losses during the first six weeks of the war places all previous casualties far in the background. Not less than 10,000 dead Germans were counted in the trenches after one engagement in eastern Prussia. On the fateful September 1, when two Russian corps came to death grips with four German corps north of Soldau, the losses of both sides totaled between 50,000 and 70,000, the majority being Germans. The correspondent of the Central News at Petrograd wires. The Slavonic natives of Austria arriving here as prisoners of war declare they were placed in front of the battle line purposely by the Austrians."

A final appalling defeat was administered to the Austrian army by the Russians yesterday at Rawa-Ruska, thirty-two miles northwest of Leberg, with the result that the last obstacle to the Russian advance toward Berlin, now that Przzemsyl and Jaroslow are invested has been removed.

What is probably most important, is the demoralization of the Austrian army, which is now in a desperate situation. Disheartened by constant defeats and suffering from defection of the various nationalities of which it is composed, mutiny now has added its destruction influence and the desertions are many. Pestilence is spreading through the ranks and numerous deaths from disease are reported.

AN ECHO OF THE HILLSVILLE CASE

Mrs. Edwards Arrives in Richmond in Order to Plead for Her Son.

MOTHER OF YOUNGEST

Gray-Haired Woman Will Ask Governor to Pardon Boy—Prinoner was Victim of Circumstances.

Richmond, Vt. Sept. 10—Leading by the hand a brown-haired, smiling boy of about ten years, a gray-haired, matronly woman, neatly attired in black, entered the office of Governor Stuart in the Capital Building yesterday, shortly after the noon hour.

In striking contrast with the carefree look on the face of the romping, grinning lad was the troubled anxious expression of the woman in black. Her step was hesitant and slow. She clung to the arm of the little fellow, who tugged to free himself, and the very quiet of the room of which Secretary Alexander Forward, seated at his desk at the far end engrossed in the persual of official papers, was the only occupant, seemed to inspire her with dread. Not until the Governor's secretary looked up, and recognizing her, gave her a cordial greeting, did the woman in black venture further than a foot from the doorway.

The gray-haired, sad-faced woman was Mrs. Albert Allen Edwards, mother of Sidna Edwards and sister of Floyd, Sidna, Jack and Garland Allen. A mothers devotion to her boy had brought her from the hills of Carroll County. She had come to make an appeal to the Governor—not in behalf of her outlaw brothers, but to crave executive clemency for her son. She spoke briefly and to the point, after the manner of the woman of the mountains, explaining to Mr. Forward her mission.

"I come to see if the Governor won't do something for my boy, Sidna. He is mighty bad off in health," she said smiply, as she seated herself in the chair proffered by Mr. Forward.

The Governor's secretary spoke kindly, informing Mrs. Edwards that the Governor was not in the city.

She told him she had left the Carroll Hills forever. She couldn't bear to be so far separated from her boy after she heard that he had developed symptoms of tuberculosis, and had been sent to the State farm. She was sure the Governor would have compassion upon Sidna now that the white plague seemed likely to cheat the law of the penalty imposed by the court, fifteen years in the penitentiary. She grew more and more earnest as she proceeded, but without exhibiting the emotion that stirred her.

She said she was confident that the Governor would not turn a deaf ear to her. She would ask him to grant Sidna a pardon. She intended to settle down with her family here in Richmond and show the folks, if the Governor would only release Sidna to her that he is really a good boy.

Mrs. Edwards has sold the little log house and the small farm that belonged to her. The place is thirteen miles from Hillsville. She disposed of all her possessions in fact when she determined to come to Richmond. She is strong in the hope that her appeal to the Governor will not be futile. She is even talking of importuning the Governor to release Wesley Edwards after Sidna is pardoned; and, later, making a fight in their behalf for the release of the rest of the outlaws.

JAIL FOR DENYING HAIR CUT.

Butte Barber Given 60 Days by the Martial Law Court.

Butte, Mont., Sept. 10.—D. J. Waidner, a barber, yesterday was sent to jail for 60 days because he refused to cut a militiaman's hair last Saturday night. The militiaman Private Huff, of Company A, Montana, National Guard, is helping to maintain martial law in Butte. Waidner was sentenced by Major Jesse B. Roote, who, as judge advocate, presides over the summary Military Court established by the militia to take the place of the Police Court.

Waidner said he refused to serve Huff because many of his patrons were opposed to the presence of the military in Butte. Major Roote declared by so doing he had insulted the Governor, the uniform of the militia and the United States army and the American flag.

REVELL S. GREENAWAY,

INVESTIGATING FIRE

Attempted Incendiarism on Cameron Street Tuesday Night Remains a Mystery.

There were no cases on the docket of the Police Court this morning, and the only matter brought to the attention of that tribunal was the attempt on Tuesday night to set fire to house No. 502 Cameron street, occupied by Mrs. Robinson, an account of which was published in yesterday's Gazette. Mrs. Robinson, her son, and George Wink and his wife, their adjoining neighbors, were present, as was also L. N. Duffey, who represented Wink and his wife.

The attempt to set fire to a dwelling in the night time is capital offense, and the dastardly act is veiled in mystery. Old newspapers, which had been saturated with turpentine, were lowered alongside the Robinson house at a place where there was every reason to believe they would cause an immediate conflagration, as the burning paper came in contact with woodwork in the rear portion of the dwelling. A rope which had been placed over a nail in the side of the house was used to lower the paper.

The inmates of the Robinson house (who were supposed to be in a moving picture show at the time) had their attention attracted by the light and made an investigation. The excitement caused Mrs. Wink to come from her house and she endeavored to extinguish the flames with a broom. Her husband followed her and placing a ladder upon the side of the house prevented what might have proven a serious fire.

It is difficult to understand how the incendiary managed to obtain access to the premises and to place the combustibles in position, as the only way he could have used was through Mrs. Robinson's premises, and a fierce dog is always on the watch for intruders. The damage to the house was slight.

Appeal Granted.

The Supreme Court of Appeals at Staunton Monday granted an appeal to the defendants in the celebrated Walker-Ratcliffe $25,000 alienation suit.

A jury in the law and equity court awarded Thomas Grant Walker damages to the amount of $5,000 for the alienation of his wife's affections by members of her family. Walker married Betty Ratcliffe. Her family objected to the match and succeeded in getting the bride back home a few hours after her marriage. Returning to her home here, Betty Ratcliffe refused to return to her husband and the suit followed.

GERMANY DISAPPOINTED.

Officer Says His Country is Beginning to Feel Nervous.

London, Sept. 10.—Post correspondent, wiring from a point not given in the dispatch, has seen a letter from a high German officer invalided home, in which he states:

"The war is not going quite as we expected, and the resistance of the allied forces is extraordinary. We are beginning to feel nervous as to results.

"The German losses are terrible, so terrible that the emperor has forbidden their disclosure. Our generals have been wantonly wasteful with our men, who have been mowed down in thousands.

"While it is impossible to say what our losses are, I estimate them at between 350,000 and 400,000. If they continue at this rate we shall be quite unable to meet Russia with any hope of success.

For a good many months I had trouble with my stomach and found it necessary to eat sparingly," writes Mrs. Bernice Wyandt, Lima, Ohio. "There was a dull and heavy feeling in my stomach after eating that was most uncomfortable. I was also annoyed by frequent headaches. After taking a number of medicines without benefit I got a bottle of Chamberlain's Tablets and found they were just the thing. Two bottles of them rid me of this complaint." For sale by all dealers.

SHOT WHILE CLOSING STORE.

Merchant Dies From Wounds Received When Three Negroes Attempted a Hold-up.

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 10.—As he was closing the back door of his store at the corner of Washington avenue and Proescher street Sunday, morning about 2:20 o'clock, Isaac Aleck was shot in the left forearm and side by an unknown negro, and died in St. Vincent's Hospital. He was fully conscious for some time after the shooting, and from the meagre account given by him, three negroes attempted to rob him, enterng through the back door, and when he offered resistance one of them fired two shots, one of which caused his death.

Alexandria Gazette AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE,

PUBLISHED DAILY.

The Alexandria Gazette Corporation. Gazette Building - - - - King Street.

ROBERT S. BARRETT, President and General Manager.

HOWARD W. SMITH, Secretary and Treasurer.

Entered at the Postoffice of Alexandria, Virginia as second-class matter.

NEW COMMITTEES OF CITY COUNCIL.

The names of the new committees of the City Council, published in yesterday's Gazette, seem to have met the approval not only of the members of the two boards but those they represent. The presidets, handed that delicate proposition in a manner which, so far as we can see, has proven satisfactory to all concerned. In fact, we have not heard either criticism or sugestions of improvements. This has not always been so. There have at times been disappointments both on the part of some who have supposed their abilities were not appreciated or their friends.

As was stated in the Gazette last week, the new Council starts out under favorable auspices, and not with bickerings, prolonged debates and filibusterings. None seem to be nursing sore places, and all, apparently, realize that they are public servants and should vie for the general welfare.

There is much work to do and of a nature which requires business tactics and not demagogy. The financial end is a problem which will be handled by able hands, as will also every other department supervised by the various committees.

Heretofore, the work of committees has been delayed until the hour fixed for calling the two boards to order. This has prolonged the meetings at least half an hour. President Field, of the Aldermen, and President Smith, of the Common Council, have suggested to the members of the committees that in future they meet an hour before the appointed hour for calling Council to order and have their reports ready as soon as the boards convene. The members of the committees have cordially acquiesced in the suggestion, and everything will be done in the future to expedite the business which may come before the city fathers.

"THE SWORD OF THE LORD AND OF GIDEON."

Emperor William is said to have made the following speech to his troops upon their departure for the front:

"Remember, that the German people are the chosen people of God. On me as German Emperor the spirit of God has descended! I am His weapon, His sword, and His vice regent. Woe to the disobedient; death to cowards and unbelievers."

The South Sea Islanders have ever in effigies represented their deities as furies. According to the German Emperor, he is inspired to invade peaceful Belgium and France, destroy cities, tread down crops and place crape upon thousands of doors. His conception of the God of the universe seems to be on a par with that of the people of Senagambia.

Madame Roland when about to be beheaded shouted, "O Liberty, Liberty, what crimes are committed in thy name!" We live in a day when we can truly exclaim, "O Christianity, what horrors are perpetrated under the banner of the cross!"

SUDDEN CHANGE TOWARD JEWS.

Now that a bloody conflict is in progress between Austria and Russia, both countries are throwing sops to a people who have been illy treated by both nations from time immemorial. Austria, it will be remembered, in 1885 informed the United States government that A. M. Keily, of Richmond, who had been appointed by President Cleveland, Minister to Vienna, was persona non grata, as his wife was of Jewish descent and member of a race not allowed at the Austrian court.

The manner in which Jews have been treated by Russia is a sad chapter in modern history. These modern sovereigns might take a hint from King Cyrus of Persia. The interest he manifested in the Abrahamic race has been remembered by the generations which have followed the great conqueror. The Persians accelerated the return of the Israelites to Judea to after seventy years captivity in Babylon. He had nothing to gain. The Russians and Austrians are not actuated by sentiment, they have other motives and the time has come when Jews are no longer persona non grata at the court of Francis Joseph or Nicholas.

WAR AND COFFEE

All the Coffee consumed in America comes from foreign soil, and is transported to the United States in German and English vessels. In fact foreign counties supply the world with Coffee and their import trade at the present time is at a standstill on account of the great European war.

The Coffee held in warehouses in America is at the lowest ebb, and there seems but little chance in the near future to import Coffee in great quantities.

Up to the present time there has been no advance in the price of Coffee in our stores, altho practically throughout the country the prices of all foreign product have increased tremendously.

Our price on Coffee will remain unchanged until our supply is exhausted.

A GLOOMY PICTURE.

Writing in the New York American B.C. Forbes says:

The war will cost the world not $50,000,000 a day but upward of $250,000,000.

The $50,000,000 may cover the strictly military expenditures; but a far heavier toll is levied upon international and national trade. The heaviest toll of all, of course, is upon manhood and parenthood of this generation and the unborn and to-be-born posterity.

The war's burden is falling upon every country, including our own, notwithstanding that America and Americans are in a position to seize advantage of certain commercial and financial opportunities thrust upon us.

What pass had the armed to-the-teeth peace of Europe come to before the inevitable upheaval occured? The principal powers of the Old World were spending $2,000,000,000 a year on armaments.

This is more than the total capital that can be raised both at home and abroad for the development of the United States. It is twice America's whole outstanding national debt. It is double the national annual income. It is more than four times the total amount of gold produced throughout the world in a year.

Europe, in a word. was careering madly toward general bankruptcy.

That being the condition before the war, what will a prolonged holocaust entail?

Every dollar's worth of German foreign trade has been annihilated, and if the war continues until the end of this year the German domestic situation from every point of view will be too cruel and shocking to contemplate.

France, too, is already in pitiable plight, with thousands upon thousands of her people ruined and homeless, with her important foreign trade laid prostrate, with her financial machinery chaotic, and her government in flight.

Poor, guiltless Belgium has been laid waste and literally drenched with the blood of her sons, to say nothing of daughters and children.

Great Britain, too, is undergoing acute financial strain and an industrial depression that all efforts to capture Germany's oversea markets will not compensate for or relieve. As for ourselves, has not a first "war tax" of $100,000,000 been announced already?

But that does not begin to convey any idea of the total cost of the cataclysm or what it will impose upon this country.

. . Leaving out of the present reckoning the destruction that cannot be computed in dollars and cents—the wiping out of multiplying thousands of the flower of Europe's productive and reproductive manhood, the wrecking and ruining of unnumbered homes, the mortal blow to scientific and social progress, the wanton mutilation of irreplaceable art leaving all these and a million collateral consequences out of account the concrete cost, the financial cost of a long war will be appalling to every nation under the sun.

Every day the war is allowed to last means not only an increase in the price or rental of capital and, as an inevitable corollary, grievous depreciation in the market value of the billions of investments owned by United States insurance companies, our savings institutions,our universities and colleges, our hospitals and ther charitable institutins, our banks our trust companies, estates, and individuals, but also in all probability a substantial increase in railroad rates all over the country as the sole means of averting wholesale transportation bankruptcies.

How long is this, the only powerful unentangled nation to stand idly and indifferently by and watch Europe bleed herself nigh unto death?

Steps toward having the Bible read in every public school in the land were taken yesterday by the National Council of Daughters of Liberty at its annual session in Washington. A resolution was adopted calling upon the legislative committee to see that a suitable bill is offered and urged in every State legislature, and also calling upon the more than 90,000 members to get behind these bills and see that they are enacted into law.

The official press bureau says the Oceanic, the White Star liner, which is now in the British service as a converted cruiser, is a total wreck on the north coast of Scotland. The officers and crew were saved.

WAR INCIDENT.

Left Wife And Babe for Front—Among the Missing.

About 20 years ago a young German who had invented a valuable process for the manufacture of certain chemicals came to this country to be nearer his chief markets. Business prospered, the money flowed in, and the young German chose a wife from the people of his fosterland.

Last July he took his wife across the ocean on a vacation trip, and chiefly so that their first child might be born in fatherland. He expected to be back in America by now with his wife and new baby, but the iron finger of war reached out and tapped him on the shoulder. Within a few days after the child was born, the Government military emissary stopped at the Germans door and notified him that his services were required in the armies of the Kaiser. There was no escape. He had neglected to take out American naturalization papers.

His wife has not heard from her husband since the day she kissed him in a heartbroken farewell. For al, she knows he lies six feet deep in the hastily dug trenches before Liege or stark on the plains of Charleroi. The business which he built up in this country with such cheerful pains is rapidly going to ruin in the hands of an inexperienced and distracted relative.—(Wall Street Journal.)
